News from Wool N' Things

Hello my fellow knitters!

After some technical difficulties with the March newsletter, I am finally able to send it via email again. As always, it is also available on our website (www.woolnthings.com). I have been busy looking at the new Fall and Winter collections (yes, already!) and I'm pleased to tell you that I was impressed! Also, I went to Toronto for a weekend at the beginning of May. What a trip! I found several new things and new colors in many of the yarns we already carry. The most interesting discovery was a store called Americo (www.americo.ca). They had many varieties of yarn and accessories from Argentina, which will be arriving here in August.

Thank you so much for your support,
Gisèle
